SUMMARY

A young medical doctor, with excellent clinical as well as interpersonal skills and good exposure to clinical practice. Over the years, I have acquired experience in emergency medicine, primary care medicine and specialty care. I endeavor to work according to established standards even under minimal supervision where my skills, knowledge and resourcefulness can be harnessed to contribute maximally into realizing organizational goals. I value working as a team with other colleagues and health professionals, hence I ensure to cultivate and maintain a good rapport for an efficient healthcare delivery system.
